

Home Learning

Due: 05.03.2020

In recent weeks, we have been practising and developing our understanding of fractions. We can use bar models to find fractions of amounts, use diagrams to identify equivalent fractions and order, compare, add and subtract fractions with the same denominators. This week we have set a variety of activities on Education City to help you practise these skills.

